There are few scholarly books about toys, and even fewer that consider toys within the context of culture and communication. Toys and Communication is an innovative collection that effectively showcases work by specialists who have sought to examine toys throughout history and in many cultures, including 1930's Europe, Morocco, India, Spanish art of the 16th-19th centuries. Psychologists stress the importance of the role of toys and play in children's language development and intellectual skills, and this book demonstrates the recurrent theme of the transmission of cultural norms through the portrayal, presentation and use of toys. The text establishes the role of toy and play park design in eliciting particular forms of play, as well as stressing the child's use of toys to 'become' more adult. It will be beneficial for courses in education, developmental psychology, communications, media studies, and toy design. The beloved story of the Velveteen Rabbit, the toy rabbit made real by the love of a boy, is now available in a beautiful, padded, oversized board book format featuring Charles Santore's award-winning illustrations. Originally published in 1922, The Velveteen Rabbit is a treasured classic that has warmed many hearts for decades. The same magnificent artwork as in the hardcover classic edition has been faithfully reproduced on sturdy board stock that will withstand repeated reading and handling...and the padded cover is perfect for toddler-sized hands! This stunning, oversized, padded board book will bring smiles to faces young and old for years to come! Celebrate Life With Dew Drop and Toy is a whimsical fantasy world of children. The book travels through the mind of a child. The fantasy they enjoy helps protect them from a world that has brought poverty and great loss to many people. The year is 1930. The village of Nannyglow is nestled in a valley surrounded by beautiful mountains. The children live on a farm outside of Nannyglow. They face the world with a pure heart, and their adventure brings tears and laughter to the world. A kind old hermit living at the edge of their family's property helps them see a wonderful world through the eyes of a child. Each adventure they share is sure to delight every reader. There is a reflection at the end of every chapter that describes how a parent would feel if faced with similar circumstances. The children's father enters their bedroom after they are asleep, and whispers to them that everything will be all right. The children see the shadow in their room and in their child-like minds sees him as the candy-colored sandman. Actually in reality it is their father. A father who loves them, shares their dreams, and gives them hope for a bright tomorrow. The father leaves their room and leans against the door and reflects on the days events. No Marketing Blurb Britain's has a long, distinctive history producing farm model tractors for collectors, young and old, around the world.
